

Nora's Sister Is Gone, and That's a Bare Fact

By Evan F Clements

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Blake Masterson of Masterson Investigations is shocked to find a beautiful woman sunbathing on his office desk and most embarrassed that he would dare violate one of his mother's lessons on morality in his stare. Nora Dederding is distraught about her missing sister, Calla and has come to Masterson Investigations for help. Learning from his assistant that Mr. Masterson was not due in his office for another hour, she took advantage of the sun filled floor-to-ceiling windows behind his desk. Removing the desk objects impeding her desired plan, she removed her clothes, stretched out and fell fast asleep. It was the first sun she had seen in days and the first sleep since her sister had not come home to the apartment they shared. As she soon learned, her sun worshiping desire was not a good idea in starting her investigative relationship with the man that she so needed to help her. Calla, fifteen, was frightened when the men took her from the apartment she shared with her older sister. The sisters had no money and had...
