The Mantle of Command: FDR at War, 1941-1942

By Hamilton, Nigel.

Mariner. 1 Paperback(s), 2014. soft. Book Condition: New. (Nominated for the 2014 National Book Award) Also the biographer of John F. Kennedy, General Bernard "Monty" Montgomery, and Bill Clinton, Nigel Hamilton here gives us a dramatic account of how Franklin D. Roosevelt took charge of America's military in World War II, offering a radical new perspective on FDR's masterful if underappreciated leadership of the Allied war effort. After the disaster of Pearl Harbor, we see Roosevelt devising a global strategy that will defeat Hitler and the Japanese, rescue Churchill and the British people, and quell a near insurrection of his own generals and the War Department. Hamilton's account drives toward Operation Torch the Allied invasion of Axis-occupied Northwest Africa and illuminates its implications for FDR and the outcome of the war. 514.
