Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Poems and Addresses of Charles J. Barrett, Late State Deputy of the Knights of Columbus of New Jersey May 14 was a day of grief and sadness for the New Jersey membership, for it marked the passing away of one of Nature's noblemen, their beloved State Deputy - Charles J. Barrett. Within an hour after the close of the State Convention, which had unanimously re-elected him to the office of State Deputy, filled by him during the past year with honor to himself and to the Order, he died of septic pneumonia, and an occasion that was to have been one of joy and merriment, was turned to deepest gloom. The fact that State Deputy Barrett was lying critically ill at his home in South Orange, was communicated to the delegates as soon as the convention, which met in Jersey City, had assembled, and fervent prayers were offered for his recovery, but without avail, for shortly after adjournment the dreaded announcement of the State Deputy's death was received. It created profound sorrow among...
