Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Students Catechism on Book-Keeping, Accounting and Banking Although numerous works on Book-keeping have been published during recent years, the experience of examiners and teachers clearly indicates that the requirements of the average student have not been entirely met, and that some new method of instruction is needed. Examiners report, year after year, that the answers given by candidates are not satisfactory, and every teacher of Book-keeping knows how few students there are who can give clear and concise answers to questions on the subject, even after months of study. This defect on the part of students frequently arises not so much from want of general knowledge of the subject as from inability to find words to give appropriate expression to the specific knowledge which they are called Upon to display. In a recent lecture on Executorship Accounts, Mr. Roger N.Carter, M. Com. F.C.A., impressed upon students the necessity of learning good definitions of the various terms used, and added: A long experience of students has taught mo that, whilst many of them know what such expressions mean, they find a great difficulty (if they have not practised it), in putting their ideas into words. The present work is based upon a new system, and is specially designed to enable any one to acquire a practical knowledge of Book-keeping with a minimum expenditure of time and trouble, and at the same time to learn how to answer questions on the subject. In order to secure these results, the work is composed of graduated and classified questions and answers, so arranged as to form an easy, systematic, and complete course of instruction in the principles and...
