Excerpt from Speech of Mr. Stewart of Pennsylvania, on the Three Million Appropriation Bill, and the Mexican War: Delivered in the House of Representatives of the Feb, 13, 1847 The House being in Committee of the Whole on the state of the Union on the Three Million Appropriation bill - Mr. Stewart said he proposed, in the first place, to inquire briefly into the true purposes and objects of this bill; for it seemed to him that, in the course of the present debate, almost every thing else had been discussed but the bill itself. This bill grants the President what he demands, three millions of dollars to make a treaty with Mexico, and authorizes him to pay the money before the treaty is submitted to or approved by the Senate; and the Senate are thus required to ratify this treaty before they see it, or know what it is. Is it not in effect a ratification of the treaty beforehand? How can the Senate object to the treaty, no matter what is its character or provisions,...
