TO BRISTOL AND TRENTON THE first portion of what became the King s Road to New York was in use in 1677. In 1681 overseers were appointed by the Court at Upland to repair the highway from Bristol to the Falls of the Delaware (Trenton). On the 22d of 6th month, 1700, William Penn wrote to James Logan asking him to urge the justices about the bridge at Pannepeck and Poquessin that he might be able to come to the city. On November 19, 1686, at a meeting held in Philadelphia, the Provincial Council ordered the road called the King s Highway to be laid out to Morrisville. This was the first public road surveyed in Bucks County. There was no regular transportation line along the road until 1725. In that year an enterprising man advertised that four wheel chairs would be run, on notice to the proprietor, from the Three Tuns tavern, on Chestnut street, between Second and Third streets, all the way to Frankford. The fare was to be ten shillings. At intervals through the next thirty years announcement was made of further ventures in transportation until it became possible to go all the way from Philadelphia to New York by stage wagons. The first stage coach through from Philadelphia to New York began to run in 1756; the time required was three days. In 1783 Johann Schoepf wrote: A diligence known as the Flying Machine makes daily trips between Philadelphia...
