The Fifth Annual Conference of the Alabama Home Economics Association met at Montevallo January 30-31, 1920. This was the first meeting since 1918. Owing to the prevalence of influenza, there was no meeting in 1919. Preceding the regular meetings, a conference of all Vocational Home Economics teachers was called by Mr. Spright Dowell, State Superintendent of Education, and Miss Ivor Spafford, State Supervisor of Vocational Home Economics. Miss Spafford's address on Vocational Home Economics - Its Meaning, Its Aims, and Its Standards made the subject very clear to everyone. In the absence of Miss Sarah Bandy, President of the Association, the evening exercises were presided over by the Vice-President, Mrs. Chappell Cory. Miss Hannah Crook, of the Voice Department, sang most beautifully Sea Dreams, by Metcalf. Dr. Palmer, in a few well-chosen words, extended a welcome to all visitors. This was followed by a...

Reviews

This ebook is very gripping and exciting. It is one of the most amazing book we have study. Its been printed in a remarkably easy way and it is only after i finished reading this book through which really transformed me, affect the way i think.
