Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Hawaii s Need of Medical Inspection of Schools In a small minority of cases were such defects known to parents, teachers, or the children themselves. A local application may not be out of place. Somewhat over a year ago word reached me that a child in one of our city schools had been severely whipped and I was asked to look into the case. The teacher admitted whipping the child for inattentiveness and failure to obey orders. A careful inquiry developed the fact that the child was almost totally deaf in the right ear and that when spoken to from that side she either did not hear at all or so indistinctly as not to comprehend what was said. The condition was unknown to parent, teacher and child. Hawaii has over 18,000 public school children. An examination here would doubtless produce startling results. For the year ending April 30, 1908, the government dispensary gave 4,605 treatments for trachoma to children from only twelve of our public schools in this city. How many private treatments were...
