An individual may claim a $1,000 tax credit for each qualifying child. A qualifying child must meet the following four tests: 1. Relationship - The child generally must be the taxpayers son, daughter, grandchild, sibling, niece, nephew, or foster child. 2. Residence - The child must live with the taxpayer in the same principal place of abode for over half the year. 3. Support - The child must not have provided more than half of his or her own support for the year. 4. Age - The child must be under the age of 17. For purposes of the child tax credit, a qualifying child must be a citizen, national, or resident of the United States. The child tax credit is phased out at a rate of $50 for each $1,000 of modified adjusted gross income over $75,000 for unmarried taxpayers, $110,000 for married individuals filing joint returns, and $55,000 for married individuals filing separate returns. The child tax credit is partially refundable, meaning that it is available to workers who have no individual income tax liability. Under...
