Government Accountability Office, 2007 OCLC Number: (OCO)86083266 Subject: Federal aid to terrorism prevention -- United States. Excerpt: . . . Separately, a border security initiative known as US-VISIT is intended to serve as a comprehensive system for integrating data on the entry and exit, and verifying the identity, of most foreign travelers coming through the nations air, land, and sea ports, to mitigate the likelihood that terrorists or criminals can enter or exit at will, or that persons stay longer than authorized. Our work indicates that US-VISIT faces operational and strategic challenges. DHS has made considerable progress installing the entry portion of this system, which allows CBP border officers to verify travelers identities by, among other things, scanning and comparing digital fingerprints and photographs, and checking biographic information against various federal databases, including the consolidated terrorist watch list. But Congress goal for US-VISIT - to record the entry, reentry, and exit of travelers, including those who overstay their authorized stay - has not been fully achieved. According to DHS, an exit capability using comparable biometric scanning tools is...
