Excerpt: .who shall appoint convenient times for that purpose and give reasonable examination. notice to the parents of those whose turn is arriving. No girl shall be admitted to the School except after undergoing such examination and being found fit for admission. Those who are so found fit shall, if there is room for them, be admitted in order according to the dates of their application. If there is not such room the Governors of the Girls School may direct that their priority shall be determined by competitive examination. 112. The examination for admission shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, but it shall never fall below the following standard, that is to say: --Reading easy narrative; Small text handwriting; The first four rules of Arithmetic; The outlines of the geography of England. The Governors of the Girls School may raise the minimum standard from time to time if they deem it advantageous for the School. 113. The Governors of the Girls School and Head Mistress shall, within their Instruction: respective departments, as herein-before defined, and subject to the provisions of this Religious. Scheme, make proper regulations for the religious instruction to be given in the School. 114. The subjects of secular instruction shall be as follows: -- Secular. Reading, Writing, Arithmetic, English Composition and Literature, Geography, History, German, French, some one or more branches of Natural Science, Algebra, Geometry, Domestic Economy, Drawing, and Music.
