

Two Hundred and Fifty Books, Manuscripts and Autograph Letters (Classic Reprint)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Two Hundred and Fifty Books, Manuscripts and Autograph Letters This very choice twelfth-century French Manuscript is written on 544 leaves of the very finest thin vellum, with two columns to the page and fifty lines to the column. The ornamental letters throughout are in red and blue, with light pen-drawn ornaments extending up and down the margin of the opposite colour to the letter itself, while at the commencement of each book is a larger and more elaborate initial, worked in both colours, with curved ornament inside and more elaborate marginal ornament, also in two colours. The Manuscript commences with the Preface of St. Jerome, the Author of this revision, and before each Book is a short Prologue. The text of the Bible ends on leaf 300, and it is followed, immediately, by the Interpretationes Bible, which concludes on the recto of leaf 540. At the foot of the last column are nine lines of Invocations to the Blessed Virgin, each line divided into two parts ending with a similar rhyme. The eight pages following...

Reviews

Unquestionably, this is the best work by any author. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. I realized this publication from my dad and i advised this pdf to find out.

An incredibly great book with perfect and lucid answers. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. You will not sense monotony at whenever you want of the time (that's what catalogues are for relating to if you question me).
